TowerPinkster Welcomes Two New Board Members and Seven Employees

May 31, 2016 – TowerPinkster, an architecture and engineering firm specializing in education, health care, commercial and government building design, is experiencing continued growth in the West Michigan market and has announced the appointment of two new board members and seven new employees.

New Board Members:

TowerPinkster is proud to announce the addition of two new members to its Board of Directors; Adam Doublestein and Matt Slagle.

Adam Doublestein, PE, CPMP, LEED AP BD+C, joins TowerPinkster’s Board of Directors. Adam is a licensed engineer and ASHRAE-certified commissioning process management professional with more than 17 years in the industry. He leads the firm’s government market sector and is responsible for business development and marketing efforts. Adam serves as Project Principal, Project Manager and Senior Engineer for clients such as the State of Michigan, Michigan Department of Corrections, Gerald R. Ford International Airport, Kent County, Grand Rapids Home for Veterans, Grand Valley State University and Meijer. He is a volunteer for the Kent ISD Engineering Explorer’s and STEM programs, as well as a member of the Grand Rapids 2030 District, and Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce – Chamber Open Golf Committee. Adam has also been involved with ASHRAE for 19 years and has been a member of the West Michigan Chapter Board, holds positions on three society technical committees, and is currently an incoming regional chairman.

Matt Slagle, AIA, NCARB, CPTED, LEED AP, is a registered architect and has been a senior designer within the firm’s K-12 market for the past 10 years. Also based in TowerPinkster’s Grand Rapids office, he was recently promoted to Director of K-12 Education and plays an instrumental role in expanding and strengthening the firm’s education market through both innovative design approaches and business development leadership. Some of his recent work includes projects for Northview Public Schools, Kalamazoo Public Schools, Byron Center Public Schools and the Battle Creek Area Math & Science Center. Matt also serves on the Board of Directors for Grand Rapids Public Schools Academy of Design, and the Cannonsburg Challenged Ski Association.

“We are excited to have Adam and Matt join the Board to enhance TowerPinkster’s presence in the community and continue attracting the next generation’s talent,” said Bjorn Green, TowerPinkster President and CEO. “Their leadership and guidance will be beneficial as we further our mission to become design leaders creating unique environments with our clients and communities.”
